The Dinner to Senator Stone.

After Victor Ridder had disclosed the act that Senator Stone had attended a conference of Germans at Terrace Barden a month ago to discuss the President's attitude toward them Henry making known that it was he who had given the dinner and that Senator Stone had been there at his invitation. Other guests besides those mentioned, he said, were Dr. Emanuel Baruch and Dr. Louis Abeles explained that he had arranged this dinner for Senator Stone and had invited Mr. Ridder, "knowing that Senator Stone wanted to have a that Senator Stone wanted to have a chance to speak to some prominent German Americans of New York. It was when he went to Ridder's office to invite him, he said, that he encountered Senator Keller of Illinois, who was defending the Fresident. The Senator, he asattor Keiler of Illinois, who was defending the President. The Senator, he asserted, in the talk said that Mr. Hughes had refused to commit himself. Whereupon Ridder said, according to Abeles, that if Mr. Hughes took the legal point of view in the Lusitania affair he would have to take it in every case where would be compelled to take

Where Hapgood Charge Was Born.

This was the incident which led to the Hapgood charge that Ridder had written part of the Hughes speech. As for the remarks attributed to Senator Stone by Mr. Ridder on the occasion of the dinner at Terrace Garden, which lested all night, Abeles said that at no fine had enator Stone said anything that could

In proof of this he handed out copies of the senter Stone's speech to the dinner party. This speech, made by the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations to say whether it be not so. I ask you to say if it be not true that Judge to say if it is say if it is man of the Senate Poreign Relations Committee, follows:

"I do not desire to argue or discuss with you the President's policies as related to the European war. Discussion would do no good. I wish merely to state the President's point of view as I understand it—without discussing it. I wish merely to state the situation as I understand it that you may yourselves and in your way think about it. Mink dent, but I shall state in a general way what I understand to be his point of view.

"I understand his view to be that the United States should maintain an attitude of just neutrality, and avoid any

"Senators, my one supreme passion is this—that when my part in public affairs is written it may be said that I stood against involving our people in this terrible tragedy, that I shood for peace as long as peace could be preserved without the sacrifice of national honor. I feel that where mere commercial considerations are involved, where the question is cheffy one of damages and dollars, questions of that kind might well be made the subject of diplomatic necotiation or be submitted to international arbitration. But in cases where life, American life, as involved on the open sea I think we Americans.

"If Hughes should be elected President who would be Secretary of State? I again as to Wilson, Wilson's hand is cone on the table, face up, Hughes's hand is also on the table, face up, Hughes's hand is also on the table, face up, Hughes's hand is also on the table, face up, Hughes's hand is also on the table, face up. Hughes's hand is thicker than water. But that is true not only of blood pulsing through tier-prominence likely to surround Hughes if man veins, but equally true of blood elected. But the list I have given is pulsing through the veins of other people. Is not that true

Referred to Hughes's Ancestry. "Have that in mind when I recall to your thought that Mr. Hughes, the Republican Presidential candidate, is of We'sh descent. He was born in the United States like many of you, but his

United States like many of you, but his fether, a Baptist minister, was born in Walez, whence he migrated to the United States Wales is an important and very loyal part of Great Britain. Do not forget that the heir apparent to the British throne is the Prince of Wales or forget that to-day the most pulsasant force in the British Government a Lloya Grears, a Welshman.

have to take it in every case where american rights were involved and that he, Ridder, was convinced that his stand would be that which every American would be compelled to take has he sought most diligently to con-"Mr. Ridder," continued Abeles, "said that he could even tell then what Mr. Hughes, as an American having Aner-Hughes, as an American whom the said that he was a supplied to the said that he has he sought so assiduously to bring to his support, and before whom has he bowed so obsequiously?

Says Roosevelt Named Him.

"Moreover, recall the fact that when the Republican and Progressive conven-tions were in session in Chicago Col. Rossevelt's dominating influence made Judge Hughes's nomination possible. If Roosevelt had exercised the veto power Hughes would have then passed into the discard. You know that to be true. In proof of this he handed out copies Roosevelt is Warwick to Hughes. He's Semitor Stone's speech to the dinner kingmaker.

United States should maintain an attitude of Just neutrality, and avoid any serious vital controversy so far as possible with any of the belligerent Powers calculated to involve this country in the war. Let me relate a circumstance showing how the President feels. On one occasion last winter, when with other Senators I was discussing with other Senators I was discussing with other Pesident some of our German-American international difficulties, then very acute, he arose from his chair and with getter. And "Men are known by the great impressiveness said:

"Senators, my one supreme passion is the point of the p at Berlin conceiled the correctness of the President's attitude. When Berlin can Senate Lodge is one of Roosevelt's said, was the protection of the mails said, was the protection of the mails. There was no secrecy in our meeting. There was no secrecy in our meeting. There was no secrecy in our meeting. There was no secrecy we would hardly have chosen the force at Washington with Hughes as greatly and the protection of the mails said, was the protection of the mails. There was no secrecy in our meeting. There was no secrecy in our meeting. There was no secrecy we would hardly have chosen the force at Washington with Hughes as derive them water. That is true it is "Hughes, Roosevelt, Root, Lodge—a fine quartet for you to think about when said was the protection of the mails. There was no secrecy in our meeting. Said views no secrecy in our meeting. There was no secrecy we would hardly have chosen the force at Washington with Hughes as the protection of the mails. There was no secrecy in our meeting. Said views no secrecy in our meeting. There was no secrecy we would hardly have chosen the force at Washington with Hughes as the protection of the mails. There was no secrecy in our meeting. There was no secrecy i

Sees Root as Secretary of State.

Tan or Black Russia Calf. Small invisible eyelets.

A Separate Shop

On the Street Level

WEAR@SCOPE

A FACT FINDER in the FIELD of MEN'S WEAR

"Banister" is stamped on the

"Banister" Shoes sold here wants to remind you that the name

Not a superfluous statement.

Many a "foundling" shoe in many a store is sold as a gen-

"Banister" reputation-also to Courageous foresightedness enables us to offer Banister Shoes at the same price as last season-which means still bet-

Men's Shoe Shop

4 West 38th Street

your generosity.

ter values this Fall.

"Banister," a tribute to strongly sympathetic with Germany in the ground that he is unfriendly to Gerthe struggle going on in Europe. Blood many. I might extend this statement SEABURY REVERTS enough,

"Before you German Americans mak up your minds to vote for Hughes and against Wilson would it not be well to stop and think? Ask yourselves whether you should act on impulse based on a passing resentment of whether you should pause to think just

"Again I pray you not to misunder-stand me. I believe that men of German extraction are as patriotic and in every way as good citizens as we have in this Americans of German extraction are not the only American citizens though suffering from hoarseness, he warmed up to his criticism of Gov. Whitmens of Americans who by blood ties are connected with what are called the allied Powers and who even in their prayers ask for the success of their respective fatherlands. All are alike in Seabury were well received. He said in the last of the success of the success of the respective fatherlands. All are alike in Seabury were well received. He said in the success of the respective fatherlands. spective fatherlands. All are sine in this respect. This feeling is human, national part:

"The prisons of the State are now in this respect. An attemption of the state are now in this respect."

ural, inevitable, universal.
"But this I want espe road. I want you to think, and to act after you have thought these matters

"Kept I's Out of War."

fact: That President Wilson has prefact: That President Wilson has pre-served the peace and kept us out of this European war. As I have stated, I heard him say. My supreme passion is for peace. You may not agree with all he has done. I will not argue that with you. But that he has kept us out of this war, when he might easily have nterested that you might think about.

ject of diplomatic negotiation of he submitted to international arbitration. Velt regime and Roosevelt has said that the dark you take a desperate chance. But in cases where life, American life, as involved on the open sea I think we deal then with semething that cannot be made a subject of diplomatic finesse, or even of arbitration. "How does Root stand? I cannot say that he has gone farther than Roosevelt in denouncing Germany and in defending the cause of the Allies—he could not have done that—but he has gone equally as far.

Telling Wilson's Attitude. Telling Wilson's Attitude.

"I am not arguing even this question with you. I am merely stating the President's attitude for you to think about in your own way. Proceeding from this point of view the President with Berlin. This led to more or less prolonged diplomatic correspond. This led to more between the two Governments. But the end, mind you, the Governments at Berlin conceiled the currectness of the President's attitude. When Berlin conceiled the currectness of the President of the Sente Committee to Senator of the Minds double, as their people have done for generations, upon horse or mule, with the women perched upon corf. He then told about the conference with Secretary Burleson, which, according to the the women perched upon corf. That is the depth of anti-particle feeling, which about in the conference with Secretary Burleson, which, according to the the women perched upon corf. That is the depth of anti-particle feeling. The then to disturb on the the them to disturb on the conference with the women people at the them to disturb on the depth of anti-particle feeling. The then to disturb on the depth of anti-particle feeling. The then to depth of anti the Americanism of Mr. Hughes." Also this: "In spite of the insidious campaisn of the munitions press, the Presi-dent has decided not to close American harbors to German submarines in accord with the preposterous demand of the Al-

Other things said by Viereck seemed it in plain sight. to indicate that the interview micht have been mutually satisfactory.

That he had no knowledge of what the Ridder statement contained or of the one connected with the Republican National Committee or with the manage-ment of this campaign who has made directly or indirectly any promise or deal with any individual or order representing any particular view in this campaign."

TO PRISON REFORM

Challenges Gov. Whitman to Answer Charges Made by Ex-Warden Osborne,

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Samuel Sea-bury departed from his usual attack on the Whitman administration to-night and the Whitman administration to-night and featured the prison reforms of Thomas Mott Osborne in his address here. Al-though suffering from hoarseness, he that. In all I am saying to you gentlemen before me I have only this sympathetic trial. As Governor of this dominant thought in mind—that you will dominant thought in mind—that you will state I shall see that the prisons are not allow yourselves to be run off by conducted on humane principles and free frond. I want you to think, and to act after you have thought these matters out, instead of being swept off your feet by resentment or passion, stirred, it may be, by men who have political ends to promote. You are abundantly able to think for yourselves. Don't be footed by any man, and above all don't fool yourselves.

Reading from Mr. Osborne's letter of resignation he said: "These clearages are of such a character that Gov. Whitman must answer them. He cannot ignore or evade them. That he has not taken an open position hostile to Mr. Osborne to think for yourselves. Don't be footed by any man, and above all don't fool yourselves.

Reading from Mr. Osborne's letter of resignation he said: "These clarages are of such a character that Gov. Whitman must answer them. He cannot ignore anians. He was seen by crowds which an open position hostile to Mr. Osborne to than his ex-tailor with six.

Must be that our clothes are more convincing than broke every promise made to him both.

The Collseum at the Fair Grounds, are more convincing than broke every promise made to him both before and after he took office."

HUGHES REPLIES TO LUSITANIA QUESTION

Continued from First Page

zens wherever they go on honest af-Hughes analyzed the European war rea-some for a false prosperity. "It thing to live on tonics," he said. ica is living at this time on a stimulant have got to come down to sober, straight living—to meeting a competing instead of a consuming Europe."

"You have a natural sympany of the part of the part of thicker than water. That is true, it is "Hughes, Roosevelt, Root, Lodge—a only human that an American of German origin should be you are asked to condemn Wilson on the matter, Viereck, it misth be remarked, took occasion to say some nice things about Mr. Wilson, one to the efform a wooded crest. The candidate from a wooded crest. The candidate from a wooded crest. The candidate things about Mr. Wilson, one to the ef-fect that he could not believe that the Americanism of Mr. Wilson is inferior to their car and up ahead the general dining car was crowded.

Horsemen clattered down bill and pulled up with a Jerk at the trainside, gaping in frank curlosity at the unheard of spectacle of folks eating their meals with the preposterous demand of the Allies. Having so clearly maintained our neutral rights and duties in this instance.

I refuse to believe that the President will tolerate much longer the blacklisting of our merchants and the looting of our mails."
Other things said by Viereck seemed.
I special train. More than one had a special train. More than one had a short barrelled rife slung to his saidle tow, for it is still within the law in Kentucky to pack a gun if one keeps

Glad to Visit Kentucky.

The train backed into Pikesville, where the Ridder statement contained or of the James A. Garfield was sworn in as a to facts with which it dealt was the asser- Major-deneral in the days when eastern off

Everywhere the mountain people displayed admirable dignity and the most perfect courtesy and there was no mis-taking the quality of their Republicanism. They were palpably pleased when Mr. Hugnes spoke directly to them about their own country saving. their own country, saying:

"There is no place I have had a greater desire to visit than these Ken-

SECTIONALISM NO MORE, SAYS WILSON

"Any Man Who Revives the Issue Is Unworthy of Nation's Confidence."

Tells Indiana Hearers Cooperation Is the Great Task of the Country To-day.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 12. - President "The prisons of the State are now in the bands of political rings. An attempt wilson to-day replied to the Republican at reform has been introduced in Sing charge that the Democratic party is a matter from what country any American comes or is descended, absolute loyalty to America should be his first duty. I would have no misunderstanding about that I has been carried that I has been carried to first attempt, it is evident that I has been carried to first attempt, it is evident that I has been carried to first attempt, it is evident that I has been carried to first attempt, it is evident that I has been carried to first attempt, it is evident that I has been carried to first attempt, it is evident that I has been carried to first attempt, it is evident that I has been carried to first attempt. The prisons of the State are now in INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 12.—President Wilson to-day replied to the Republican clothes.

Self to Clothes. Wilson to-day replied to the Republican self to try ready-to-wear tionalism in the country is unworthy of his tailor are an extrava-

The President came to Indianapolis to address meetings of good roads advoor prejudice on a tangent or from partisan or political considerathe Indiana centennial and attend a

The Collseum at the Fair Grounds, where he delivered his first address, had many vacant seats in the rear, but the hall in which he spoke later was filled He also spoke briefly at a luncheon given him by Gov. and Mrs. Raiston.

The President departed at 5:45 o'clock th's afternoon for Long Branch, N. J., where he will arrive to-morrow afterboon at 2 o'clock.

Roads Obliterate Sectionalism. President Wilson, in his good roads peech, said in part :

"It is perfectly obvious that you have got to have an intricate and perfect net- at 13th St. work of roads throughout the length and work of roads throughout the length and breadth of this great continent before you will have released the energies of America. Good roads are necessary for every practical aspect of our lives, to draw neighborhoods together, to create community of feeling, to create those arteries which may be compared to the arteries of the human body. The blood of the nation will not flow in harmonious concord unless it can flow in intimate himself before.

Western Campaign Manager A. T

Hert accompanied Mr Hughes through Kentucky and expressed himself as much but there is one thing that I did not come here to talk politics, of America to join with the other national did not come there to talk politics, but there is one thing that is pertinent but there is one thing that is pertinent but there is one thing that is pertinent that I did not come here to talk politics, of America to join with the other nations in some kind of league for the maintenance of peace.

"Now, America was not a party to this the Republican nomines got all along the line.

Running straight south from the Ohio River, Mr. Hughes's special train entered Floyd county early this morning. Following the winding course of the Big Sandy River.

Glimpses of mountain roads revealed the "head words" men and their women shut his own country, he shows that he has shut his own heart up in a little province and bases of peace, for the shut his own heart up in a little province and their women shut his own heart up in a little province and bases of peace. Glimpses of mountain roads revealed the "back yonder" men and their women folk riding to town to hear the candidate, riding double, as their people have call interests of that province are to him done for generations, upon horse or sectional, while he alone is national.

component parts, all the necessary char- which the Federal Government is now to acters and industries and material re-sources of a great nation, and we sud-denly find that we are face to face with the problem of assembling these elements in the sense in which the mechanic as-sembles the parts of a machine.

"But just so soon as this great European war is over, America has got to stand for one thing and only one thing in the world, and she must be ready littnerary Reveals He Will Make in the world, and she must be ready with united force. We can't play with the elements of our life any more.

"America came into existence not in order to show the world the most notable example it had ever had of the accumulation and use of material wealth, but in order to show the way to mankind in every part of the world to justice and freedom and liberty. So that the words I want you to carry in your mind in connection with this good roads cause are these: First, nationalization, getting all the fibres of this great vita.

Hinerary Reveale He Will Make "Intermediate Stops."

Col Roosevelt, after all, is to make tailend speeches from a special train on his trip to the Southwest. This was revealed when the complete litherary was made public vesterday.

The Colonia will leave here Tuesday morning, travelling on a regular train to Cincinnati. There he will board a special which will take him to Corbin, oddo, and Louisville, Ky., "making intermediate stops." He will speak at Louiscause are these: First, nationalization, getting all the fibres of this great vital people united in a single organism. Second, mobilization, getting them so related to each other, so coordinated, so erganized, so united that when they move they move as a single great errelated to enquering force.

"And the third word that I want you to consider is the word that I suppose affords the key to doing these things.

facts with which it dealt was the assertion made by Chairman Willoox, who indignantly repudiated the idea that there had been any cooperation between the committee and the Ridders.

"It will be remembered," said the chairman's statement, "that Mr. Ridder any one connected with the Republican committee or with Mr. Hughes regarding the restance of the hill folk had gathered to do him any other subject. There is no one connected with the Republican committee or with Mr. Hughes regarding the committee of the hill folk had gathered to do him honor.

State of the word that I suppose the kex to doling these things of the kex to doling the kex to doling Cooperation the Watchword.

"Instead of exclusive combinations. I went to see universal cooperation. I see the growth in America of this conception of solidarity of the interest of each being the interest of all, and the interest of all.

Every once in a while we meet "the man who reads our ads" but can't get him-

He admits his trips to gance but excuses it on the ground that he's a little hard to fit.

The funny part of it is Everything men and boys wear. Sporting Goods including everything for golf in all four stores.

ROGERS PEET COMPANY Broadway

at 34th St Fifth Ave warned the people that they must pay the bill for the raised wages of a class.

"It is We, Us & Co. that must pay."
And so the argument, the material argument about markets and crops and the judicets of the mines, eight they told us so much about four years ago, but which is still with us."

Spoke to 30,000 Persons.

Mr. Hughes delivered six speeches in Kentucky to-day before 20,000 persons, presidential candidate had never shown himself before.

Western Campaign Manager A. T. Hortseyment Manager A. T. Hortseyment Manager A. T. Hortseyment Mr. Hughes the process of the world is ignorance. The only thing that breeds darkness in the world.

"My fellow citizens, I need not tell you present war is over it will be the duty."

"And so the argument, the material is a motto over the stage from which as mouth over the stage from which argument, the argument, the material argument about markets and crops and the judicets of the mines, sonk into relative unimportance when where some and empty halls, and every man ought to have symmathy.

"And so the argument, the material argument about markets and crops and the judicets of the mines, sonk into relative unimportance when when you consider the spiritual thing that you are doing in making roads. You know there is an old saying that the lines between sections are obliterated only by the feet that cross them. Sectionalism is based on the products of the mines, some and the judicets of the mines, and crops and the judicets of the mines, and crops and the judicets of the mines, some and the products of the mines, and crops and the judicets of the mines.

"And so the argument, the material is a motto over the stage from which is judicets of the words: T oncord unless it can flow in intimate to be discouraged by silence and empty is ignorance.
"My fellow citizens. I need not tell you present war is over it will be the duty play so large a part, the spirit of na-tionality, the spirit of cooperation, the spirit of liberty, the power which only a free people knows how to exercise.

Itinerary Reveals He Will Make

on Tuesday evening in Denver, where he will but in an entire day. From Denver he will go directly to Chicago, speaking Vance C. McCormick, national Demonated at Chicago for Vice-President by the Progressives on the ticket with the Progressives on the ticket with Rossevit. The dinner was supposed among politicians to be for the purpose of talking over ways to trap the Pro-

Xmas Greeting Cards Should Have a Personal Touch

Christmas will get here before you realize it. Why not order your Personal Greeting Cards now and have plenty of time later for other holiday activities. New sample books are now ready in the Stationery Engraving Department. Main Floor-Main _Stairway Landing.__

Big Sale of Men's Shoes

Four New Snappy Styles are offered at prices which invite you to stock up with two or three pairs. See evening papers for details. Main Floor Balcony, 35th St., Bear.

It's New --- It's Smart --- It's Serviceable

The "First Line" Coat

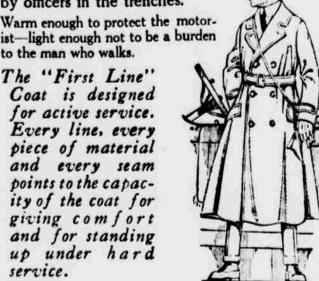

An Adequate Defense against the Penetrating Weather fortable lines of the coats worn by officers in the trenches. Warm enough to protect the motor-

Made along the loose, com-

The "First Line" Coat is designed for active service. Every line, every piece of material and every seam points to the capacity of the coat for giving comfort and for standing up under hard to the man who walks.

Made of a plain, heavy wool material, in Oxford or brown, this coat may be had with either a camel's hair lining, which is permanently sewn in. Priced at

Or, with a detachable camel's hair lining, which may be unbuttoned, leaving a lining of satin in the yoke, and sleeves. Priced at Fifth Floor, Broadway, 34th Street.

Smart Haberdashery

gives the finishing touches to a man's appearance. It's the little things that count in a man's make-up. Shirts and Hats are little things, but become important factors in the general appearance of any man. The selection of those furnishings which add to a man's bearing is an easy matter at Macy's. The stocks are completewith the latest things—the prices place good dressing within the reach of all.

Shirts $1.89 The Marlborough Woven Madras shirts made $3.89 by expert shirtmakers, in Our own importation in a variety of patterns and either soft hat or derby colorings which will please the smappy dresser as well as the man of conservative taste. Pleated Plain North taste. Pleated, Plain, Negli- conspicuous. Four styles in gee, or Soft Cuff Models. light or medium weight. Main Floor, 36th Street.

The Ideal Winter Outfit For the Chauffeur

$39.29 Complete

Instead of using whipcord for the overcoats of our standard winter outfits we have used a heavy frieze this year because of its superior wearing and warmthgiving qualities, two important features that will be appreciated by the man at the wheel. The Overcoat is double-breasted and wool lined throughout, buttons to neck, and has convertible collar, wind cuffs and length or knickerbockers in color matching the overcoat smart, semi-Norfolk coat. Venetia lined. Trousers for The Cap is made of est

BEARS OUT HAPGOOD.

Keller Says Victor Ridder Wrote the Markey mountains. I know the strength of character and the resolution of pushes defended the strength of the people of the mountains. I do to suppose there is a place in American II mean the relations between capital and labor. Persident Wilson, to insher there is a finer spirit of true of the aution's He.

Persisting, Oct. 12.—State Senator Kent E. Keller of Illinois, who is here campaigning for President Wilson, to insher there is a finer spirit of true of the aution's He.

Persisting of the people of the mountains. I do to suppose there is a place in American I mean the relations between capital and labor. Nothing can be finerest of capital that is not in the interest of capital that is not Franklin Simon & Co. belted back. Fifth Avenue New York The Suit is all wool whipcord, frieze or whipcord.